

Cotton Candy

The horse goes up
and it goes down...
Some kids laugh,
but some just frown.

And just sometimes...
Your eyes spot one.
That might be scared
or just be done?

The ride slows down,
excitement builds.
While kids leap off...
Some want more thrills.

Some parents help,
the Carnie sees...
If the ride is cleared
while more kids squeeze...

The gates outside,
that fling open wide...
As new kids race...
to take their ride.

The horse goes up
and it goes down.
But some kids laugh
while some just frown.
